On last Thursday morning as our town people arose early to go to their different callings in life the calculations were soon saddened by learning that while we all slept through the night and were unconscious of the world's doing the sharp sickle of death had been busy at work and had claimed another victim in the person of Mrs. Hawk. She went to bed well as usual, but like so many of the human race she laid down to rise no more.

She leaves to mourn their loss, an aged husband, three sons and one daughter, several children having passed on to the silent city of the dead.

More News from the New England States.

If any one has any doubt as to the virtue of Foley's Kidney Cure, they need only to refer to Mr. Alvin H. Stimpson, of Willimantic, Conn., who, after almost losing hope of recovery, on account of the failure of so many remedies, finally tried Foley's Kidney Cure, which he says was "just the thing" for him, as four bottles cured him completely. He is now entirely well and free from all the suffering incident to acute kidney trouble. Bort & Co.
